

Privacy Policy

Portland Opera is committed to protecting the privacy of its patrons. In the regular course of business, Portland Opera collects patron information including names, mailing addresses, phone numbers, and email addresses. This information is stored and protected in accordance with best business practices. Portland Opera makes use of this information in accordance with this privacy policy.

Donor Information

To recognize donors for their gifts, we list their names in our printed programs and similar materials. Donors may direct us exactly how or whether they want their names printed by contacting us at 503-417-0601 or emailing giving@portlandopera.org.

Phone Numbers and E-Mail Addresses

Portland Opera does not share patron phone numbers or e-mail addresses with any other parties. Phone numbers and e-mail addresses are used occasionally by Portland Opera to contact patrons with the intention of sharing company information and opportunities. Patrons who wish not to be contacted by Portland Opera may have their information removed from the list by calling 503-XXX-XXXX or emailing info@portlandopera.org.

Mailing Address Information

Portland Opera collects mailing address information primarily for the delivery of tickets and other important patron-related services. Patron mailing addresses are also used to inform patrons about company information and opportunities. Portland Opera does not rent or sell mailing address information to other entities. Occasionally, we trade our mailing lists with other arts and non-profit organizations. Patrons who wish to remove their mailing information from shared lists may do so by calling 503-XXX-XXXX or emailing info@portlandopera.org.

Opting Out

Patrons who do not wish to receive updates and information from Portland Opera may opt out by emailing us at info@portlandopera.org, by calling us at 503-XXX-XXXX, or by writing us at: Portland Opera, 211 SE Caruthers St, Portland, OR 97214. When communicating with us, patrons should let us know whether they do not wish to receive any mail, phone calls, e-mails or have their mailing information traded to other arts or non-profit organizations.

Links

The Portland Opera web site contains links to other community and opera web sites that our patrons may find of interest. Portland Opera does not review these web sites and is not responsible for their content or their privacy practices.

Security

Portland Opera makes every effort to ensure the security of its network, systems, and facilities.

Broadway Patrons

Portland Opera also presents the US Bank Broadway Across America Portland series in partnership with Broadway Across America. Patrons who would like more information about the uses of Broadway patron information are invited to visit www.broadwayacrossamerica.com.

Copyright

Portland Opera's web site and all its content are for personal, educational, and noncommercial use only. No part of this site may be reproduced or utilized for any other usage in any form without written consent from Portland Opera.